Media, Arts and Humanities Guidelineson eligibleuses of thenternal MAHResearch Budget

General Principles:

i. The awarding of funds from the ternal research budgets part of the remit of the Media, Arts and Humanities Research Committed applications will be considered and approved throughout the academic yearsually by the round-table or workshop at the conference in questibanding cannot normally be given for attendance only.

- Publicitytrips for books or other publications (where the sole or main purpose of the trip is publicity) The Research Office may be able to provide some administratipert in arranging book launches on campus
- Subscriptions to journals or magazines
- Membership of societies unless this cost is part of a conference registration fee condition of abstract submission.